Professor Masaki Kitajima,
Professor Jozsef Sandor,
Co-Chairmen of the Organizing and Scientific Committee of the Second Triangle Symposium of the Poland-Hungary-Japan Surgical Society

Dear Professor Kitajima,
Dear Professor Sandor,

On behalf of the Scientific Committee and the Organizing Committee I am honored that you accepted our invitation to participate in the Symposium “The Second Triangle Symposium of the Poland-Hungary-Japan Surgical Society”, which will take place on 19-21 June 2016 in Lublin.

Under the assumptions of the Poland-Hungary-Japan Surgical Society biannual triangle meetings take place successively in the selected city, in a country of individual signatories. In 2014 year, the “First Triangle Symposium” was held in Tokyo. This year, the honor of hosting the Surgeons from Japan, Hungary and Poland, as well as the privilege of the organization of the Second Triangle Symposium fell Lublin in Poland.

We believe that your active participation and the valuable scientific input in the program of the Second Triangle Symposium of the PHJ-SS will contribute to making this event a unique character. Today we look forward to this meeting as an extremely important for the Polish, Hungarian and Japanese Surgeons. We are confident that the Symposium under the patronage of the Rector of the Medical University in Lublin will be a great opportunity to strengthen the relationship between our national societies, and at the same time to exchange knowledge and experiences and spend time together in a relaxed, collegial atmosphere. The intention of the founders of the PHJ-SS was primarily to enable professional and friendly contacts between Residents and young Surgeons from Poland, Japan and Hungary.
